June's Featured Artist Jim Mullholand

I am a landscape and nature photographer living in the Willamette Valley of NW Oregon. I am originally from the Great lakes area. After spending many years moving around the country, my wife and I settled in Oregon. I have been interested in photography since I was a child taking photos on our family vacations. In the 80's I got my first SLR film camera.

In the early 90's I took a break from still photography and became interested in video. After about 5 years I decided I enjoyed photography more than video so got more serious about it and bought my first digital SLR camera.

My main focus as a photographer is landscapes and nature, but I enjoy photographing anything. Whether its a wide open panoramic landscape scene or fine details of a flower or spiderweb, I am excited to capture it and print the image for people to enjoy. When I am behind the camera, I am totally focused on my subject, waiting for just the right moment to capture the image. I actually find it relaxing because it blocks out all the stressful situations of everyday life.

I am now semi retired and I look forward to capturing many more images around Oregon and the Pacific Northwest. I am a member of the Brownsville Art Association and the Willamette Valley PhotoArts Guild.

1. Full Name. Jim Mullholand

2. What is your favorite art medium? Digital photography printed on canvas

3. How long have you been working with that medium?
About 3 years working with prints on canvas.

4. Do you expand outside of your primary medium? Why or why not?
Yes, I print my photos as traditional prints and also print on metal. Modern technology allows printing on many types of media and I'm always open to try new things.

5. Where do you find inspiration for your art?

I am inspired by the beauty of nature and the power of atmospheric conditions. (storms, clouds, rainbows)

6. What is the best part of being an artist?

For me the best part of being a photographer is getting out in nature. I live in one of the most beautiful states and and i love capturing the beauty that surrounds me.

7. What is the hardest part of being an artist?

Being a landscape photographer, one of my biggest challenges is weather conditions not cooperating with me.

8. How and where do you sell/present your art?

Locally I have my work at the Brownsville Art Center. I have had my work at Studio 262 in Corvallis and at the Albany City Hall.

Online my work can be found on Fine Arts America www.jim-mullholand.pixels.com and my JM Photography Facebook page www.facebook.com/jmphotography10

9. Who supported you during the time you decided to become an artist?

My wife and friends have been very supportive.

10. What advice do you have for beginning artists?

For new photographers I would suggest to follow other photographers who's work you enjoy,discover what inspires you and never stop learning.
